BIOGRAPHY

Conductor, composer and pianist Yaron Gottfried is one of the most prominent musicians of his generation in Israel, a multidisciplinary musician, who bridges classical, contemporary and jazz music. Gottfried held the position of music director and principal conductor of the Netanya-Kibbutz Orchestra between 2002 and 2013. Under his creative artistic leadership, the orchestra has become one of Israel's leading professional orchestras, presenting fresh revolutionary programs, packed halls, rave reviews and over 120 concerts in a season.

Gottfried studied composition with Noam Sheriff and graduated from the Rubin Academy of Music in Jerusalem under Maestro Mendi Rodan. In July 2013 he was appointed head of the new composition and conducting department at Rimon School of Jazz and Contemporary Music.

Gottfried is regularly invited to conduct and perform his works with major orchestras including Israel Philharmonic Orchestra, Israel Symphony Orchestra Rishon LeZion, Haifa Symphony, Jerusalem Symphony, Israel Chamber Orchestra, Israel Sinfonietta Beer-Sheva, China Philharmonic Orchestra, Beijing Symphony, Neues Kammerorchester Potsdam, Portland Chamber Orchestra, Thüringer Symphoniker, Budapest Concert Orchestra, Duna Symphony, Kodaly Philharmonic and Vancouver Symphony among many others. Since September 2013 he has been music director of two new contemporary concert series at Tel Aviv Museum of Art and Rimon School of Jazz and Contemporary Music.

Gottfried's unique approach to rhythm and sound is deeply reflected in his compositions, which bring together a fusion between genres and styles. Among his works are concertos, orchestral works, vocal works and orchestral arrangements. His jazz arrangements of works by Warlock, Bach and Mozart written for jazz trio and orchestra have been performed over 50 times receiving excellent reviews all over the world with many orchestras.

He received composition commissions from orchestras, artists and festivals such as Neues Kammerorchester Potsdam, Forbidden City Concert Hall, Jerusalem Symphony, Ladino singer Yasmin Levy, Red Sea Chamber Music Festival, Israel Festival and Maayan Chorus among many others.

The Israel Cultural Excellence Foundation selected Maestro Gottfried as its chosen artist for 2003-2006. He is a member of the prestigious MacDowell Colony in the USA and first prize winner of the young conductors competition held by the Israel Philharmonic and the America-Israel Cultural Foundation and first prize winner of the Red Sea Jazz Festival composition competition. Gottfried's interest in jazz led him to perform with major jazz artists such as Eddie Daniels, Eddie Gomez, Didier Lockwood, Dave Liebman, Ira Sullivan, Randy Brecker, Georgie Fame, Benny Golson and Jimmy Heath, to name a few.

BIOGRAFIE

Der Dirigent, Komponist und Pianist Yaron Gottfried ist einer der bedeutendsten Musiker seiner Generation in Israel, der in seiner Vielseitigkeit Klassik, zeitgenössische Musik und Jazz miteinander verbindet. Von 2002 bis 2013 war Gottfried als Musikdirektor und Chefdirigent des Netanya-Kibbutz Orchestra tätig. Unter seiner von besonderer Kreativität geprägten künstlerischen Leitung hat sich das Orchester zu einem der führenden Klangkörper Israels entwickelt, das mit über 120 Konzerten pro Saison, die sich durch frische und ungewöhnliche Programme auszeichnen, für volle Säle und begeisterte Kritiken sorgt.

Gottfried hat Komposition bei Noam Sheriff studiert und schloss seine Studien an der Rubin-Musikakademie in Jerusalem bei Maestro Mendi Rodan ab. Im Juli 2013 wurde er als Fachleiter für Komposition und Dirigieren an die Rimon-Schule für Jazz und zeitgenössische Musik berufen.

Gottfried tritt regelmäßig als Dirigent seiner Werke mit namhaften Orchestern auf, u.a. mit dem Israel Philharmonic Orchestra, dem Israel Symphony Orchestra Rishon LeZion, der Haifa Symphony, der Jerusalem Symphony, dem Israel Chamber Orchestra, der Israel Sinfonietta Beer-Sheva, dem China Philharmonic Orchestra, der Beijing Symphony, dem Neuen Kammerorchester Potsdam, dem Portland Chamber Orchestra, den Thüringer Symphonikern, dem Budapest Concert Orchestra, der Duna Symphony, dem Kodaly Philharmonic und der Vancouver Symphony. Seit September 2013 ist er als musikalischer Leiter von zwei neuen Konzertreihen für zeitgenössische Musik am Kunstmuseum in Tel Aviv und an der Rimon-Schule für Jazz und zeitgenössische Musik tätig.

Gottfrieds einzigartiger Umgang mit Rhythmus und Klang zeigt sich deutlich in seinen gattungs- und stilübergreifenden Kompositionen. Sein Schaffen umfasst u.a. Instrumentalkonzerte, Orchesterwerke, Vokalwerke sowie Orchesterarrangements. Seine Jazzbearbeitungen von Werken Warlocks, Bachs und Mozarts für Jazztrio und Orchester wurden weltweit über 50 Mal mit zahlreichen Orchestern aufgeführt und erhielten ausgezeichnete Kritiken.

Er erhielt Kommissionsaufträge von Orchestern, Künstlern und Festivals – u.a. vom Neuen Kammerorchester Potsdam, der Forbidden City Concert Hall, der Jerusalem Symphony, dem Ladino-Sänger Yasmin Levy, dem Red Sea Chamber Music Festival, dem Israel Festival sowie dem Maayan-Chor.

Gottfried war in den Jahren 2003-2006 Auswahlkünstler der Israel Cultural Excellence Foundation. Er ist Mitglied der angesehenen MacDowell Colony in den Vereinigten Staaten. Ihm wurden erste Preise beim Wettbewerb des Israel Philharmonic und der America-Israel Foundation für junge Dirigenten sowie beim Kompositionswettbewerb des Red Sea Festivals zuerkannt. Gottfrieds Interesse am Jazz führte zu Auftritten mit solch namhaften Jazzmusikern wie Eddie Daniels, Eddie Gomez, Didier Lockwood, Dave Liebman, Ira Sullivan, Randy Brecker, George Fame, Benny Golson und Jimmy Heath, um nur einige zu nennen.
